Application for Senior Veterinary Student Certificate to Practice Veterinary Medicine in Iowa

As stated in Iowa Administrative Rules Rule 811-6.7(3), Veterinary student certificate. The board may issue a veterinary student certificate to a senior veterinary student who is attending an AVMA-accredited college of veterinary medicine, upon endorsement by the college that the student is competent to perform veterinary duties.

- The certificate issued by the board shall limit the student to performing duties under the direct supervision of an instructor of veterinary medicine or under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian.
- Veterinary student certificate holders are prohibited from administering rabies vaccine to dogs (Iowa Code 351.35) and signing a certificate of veterinary inspection (Iowa Code 163.12).
