

IowaFADefense (IFAD) CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

The IowaFADefense (IFAD) Certification Program is a training series developed for all veterinarians licensed in Iowa to assist in preparing for and responding to foreign animal diseases (FADs).

Participants can earn up to 19 hours of CE credit and three certificates through this FREE online program.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The objective of the IowaFADefense (IFAD) certification program is to further develop the state of Iowa's Foreign Animal Disease (FAD) response capabilities and increase the number of veterinarians licensed in Iowa, who are knowledgeable and skilled in FAD preparedness and response. The IFAD program is divided into two phases, with the opportunity to become certified along three different pathways:

Diagnosis

Biosecurity

Foreign Animal Disease
Outbreak Planning and Investigation
