from the flower...

Honey bees pollinate Iowa's crops.
To make one pound of honey, bees
must visit two million flowers.

to the hive...

There are more than 45,000
colonies of honey bees in Iowa.

to YOU!

Iowa honey bees produce about 4 million pounds of honey each year.

Choose Iowa Coloring Calendar Contest

Students from all across Iowa are encouraged to enter into the annual agriculture calendar contest. Artwork will be selected based on creativity and the ability to connect agriculture products from the farm to everyday life. Entries are reviewed and 12 winners will be featured in the Choose Iowa Coloring Calendar.

The Iowa Department of Agriculture and Land Stewardship distributes the calendars at the Iowa State Fair. The winning artists will be honored by Secretary Mike Naig at a ceremony during the fair.

Students at or under the age of 18 are invited to submit artwork. Pictures should be drawn in a horizontal orientation using only black lines on plain white, 8 ½ by 11-inch paper. The pictures should not be colored in. They can be submitted either electronically by emailing communications@iowaagriculture.gov or mailed to the Iowa Department of Agriculture and Land Stewardship, Coloring Calendar, 502 E. 9th St., Des Moines, IA 50319. Each submission should include the artist's name, age, school, hometown, and contact information: email address, mailing address and phone number.

DRAWINGS MUST BE RECEIVED BY JUNE 1, 2020 TO BE CONSIDERED for the 2020-2021 calendar.

Thank you for choosing to be involved in Iowa agriculture.

Iowa prides itself on being the largest producer of corn, pork, eggs and renewable fuels. Iowa has always been a leader in agricultural production and now we are increasingly known for agricultural innovation and career opportunities. Agriculture is a part of our state's history and Iowa will continue to be a great place to grow, today and in the future.

I encourage you to continue to Choose Iowa agriculture. Thanks to each student who submitted artwork for the 2019-2020 year. I am already looking forward to enjoying your artwork all year long.

Sincerely,

Mike Naig, Iowa Secretary of Agriculture
